Present Perfect

Simple Past x Present Perfect

Past Participle

Can, Could e Will be able to

Leitura gramatical e produção de frases simples

1. Present Perfect

O Present Perfect é usado quando uma ação do passado tem ligação com o presente. Ele não destaca exatamente quando a ação aconteceu; destaca a experiência, o resultado ou a continuidade.

Estrutura

Forma	Sujeito	Auxiliar	Verbo no Past Participle
Afirmativa	I / you / we / they	have	visited / studied / seen
Afirmativa	he / she / it	has	visited / studied / seen
Negativa	I / you / we / they	have not / haven't	visited / studied / seen
Negativa	he / she / it	has not / hasn't	visited / studied / seen

Exemplos explicados

- I have visited an art gallery. = Eu já visitei uma galeria de arte. A experiência é importante, não a data.
- She has studied English for three years. = Ela estuda inglês há três anos. Começou no passado e continua.
- They have just arrived. = Eles acabaram de chegar. A ação é recente.
- Have you ever watched a play? = Você já assistiu a uma peça? Pergunta sobre experiência.

Atenção

Use has com he, she, it.

Use have com I, you, we, they.

O verbo principal não fica no passado simples. Ele fica no Past Participle: seen, written, gone, studied.

Palavras-chave do Present Perfect

Palavra	Ideia	Exemplo
ever	já - em perguntas	Have you ever performed on stage?
never	nunca	I have never written a review.
already	já - geralmente em afirmativas	She has already finished the activity.
yet	já/ainda - perguntas e negativas	Have you finished yet? / I have not finished yet.

just	acabou de	He has just called his teacher.
for	por - duração	We have studied for two hours.
since	desde - ponto inicial	We have studied since 8 o'clock.

2. Simple Past x Present Perfect

Os dois tempos podem falar de passado, mas eles não têm a mesma função. O Simple Past fecha a ação no passado. O Present Perfect mostra uma experiência ou uma consequência ligada ao presente.

Use Simple Past quando...	Use Present Perfect quando...	Compare
o tempo é definido: yesterday, last week, in 2020	o tempo não é definido	I saw the movie yesterday. / I have seen the movie.
a ação terminou no passado	a experiência importa no presente	She went to London in 2022. / She has been to London.
a pergunta é When...?	a pergunta é Have you ever...?	When did you go? / Have you ever gone?
há expressões como ago, last, yesterday	há ever, never, already, yet, just, for, since	He finished two hours ago. / He has just finished.
o foco é a data	o foco é o resultado	They lost the ticket yesterday. / They have lost the ticket.

Regra rápida para prova

Se aparecer yesterday, last..., ago ou uma data específica, use Simple Past.

Se aparecer ever, never, already, yet, just, for ou since, pense em Present Perfect.

Não misture: I have seen it yesterday está incorreto. O correto é I saw it yesterday.

3. Past Participle

Past Participle é a forma do verbo usada depois de have/has no Present Perfect. Verbos regulares recebem -ed. Verbos irregulares precisam ser memorizados.

Base form	Simple Past	Past Participle	Exemplo no Present Perfect
be	was/were	been	She has been here.
do	did	done	I have done it.
go	went	gone	They have gone home.
see	saw	seen	We have seen it.
write	wrote	written	He has written a review.
eat	ate	eaten	You have eaten lunch.
take	took	taken	She has taken photos.
give	gave	given	They have given answers.
make	made	made	I have made a poster.
come	came	come	He has come early.
buy	bought	bought	We have bought tickets.

began

begun

The class has begun.

4. Can, Could e Will be able to Essas estruturas indicam capacidade, habilidade ou possibilidade em tempos diferentes. Elas são muito usadas para falar do que alguém consegue fazer agora, conseguia fazer no passado ou conseguirá fazer no futuro.

Estrutura	Tempo	Sentido	Exemplo
can	presente	consigo / sei	I can understand the text.
could	passado	consequia / sabia	I could ride a bike when I was six.
will be able to	futuro	vou conseguir	I will be able to speak better next year.

Formas

- Afirmativa: She can sing. / She could sing. / She will be able to sing.
- Negativa: She cannot sing. / She could not sing. / She will not be able to sing.
- Interrogativa: Can she sing? / Could she sing? / Will she be able to sing?

Diferença essencial

Can: habilidade atual.

Could: habilidade no passado ou pedido educado.

Will be able to: habilidade futura.
